

QETA & UQ ECONOMICS

THURSDAY 14 JULY 2016, 10AM - 2PM (FOR A 10:10AM START)
PHYSIOLOGY LECTURE THEATRES BUILDING (#63)

Choose one presentation from each parallel session to attend.
Numbers are limited for each session.

10:10am - 10:20am Plenary Session*

Welcome to the UQ School of Economics
Associate Professor KK Tang

Room 348

Welcome to the UQ School of Economics
Dr Marco Faravelli

Room 358

*Parallel Session 1 will commence directly after the Plenary Session, so students must choose the presentation they want to hear before taking their seats.

10:25am - 11:10am Parallel Session 1

The economics of outer space
Dr Ian MacKenzie

Room 348

Do economists make bad citizens?
Dr Marco Faravelli

Room 358

11:15am - 12:00pm Parallel Session 2

What makes others happy?
Professor Paul Frijters

Room 348

Economist the matchmaker
Dr Pricilla Man

Room 358

12:00pm - 1:00pm Lunch

1:05pm - 2:00pm Parallel Session 3

Short presentations from the student employability team & UQ Library cyberschool Room 348

The role of economics in decision making
Dr Kenan Kalayci

Short presentations from the student employability team & UQ Library cyberschool Room 358

Addressing Australia's increasing contribution to world carbon emissions:
can a carbon tax help and what will be the impacts?

Associate Professor John Asafu-Adjaye