

ECONOMICS SCHOOLS' DAY 2019

A one-day experience for students to listen to experts about topics of interest and learn more about studying economics at Queensland University of Technology (QUT).

- ◆ Listen to leading QUT lecturers as they explain and interpret important economic and political issues relevant to senior secondary economic students
- ◆ Topics include:
 - ◆ Crowd funding
 - ◆ How does the stockmarket work?
 - ◆ Why economists care about games
- ◆ Learn about what is on offer in the School of Economics and Finance including what an Economics degree from QUT means in the jobs market
- ◆ Visit QUT and meet university staff and students to discuss study options with Economics

Friday 19th July 2019 - 10.00am - 2.00pm
P Block, Gardens Point Campus, QUT
Fee: $5.50 per student (QETA member schools) (incl GST)
$7.70 per student (non-QETA member schools) (incl GST)
* Includes lunch for students

For registration and more program details see www.geta.com.au

Limited spaces available. Closing Friday 12th July.

Invoices will be issued upon registration.

Further enquiries: info@geta.com.au